

Seminar: «Current Trends in Biopolitics»
July-December 2020 / Monthly

The seminar «Present of Biopolitics» is one of the activities organized by Foucault en la web latinoamericana, a group of Professors from different Institutions and countries across Latin America (Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Chile, Ecuador, México) with the goal of continuing and start academic activities within the COVID-19 context.

This seminar is institutionally and academically backed up by INEO (CIF-Conicet) of Argentina and by the School of Philosophy from the Universidad Pedagógica y Tecnológica of Colombia.

The seminar will have five meetings during 2020 and other six during 2021. These meetings will be virtual and will have a first instance of lecturing from the Professor that will be streamed on YouTube, and a second instance of discussion with the Professor through Zoom in witch there will only participate those who are been registered to the seminar.